

Monday	Objective: The learner will distinguish between domestic and international business, will discuss the reasons why international business is important and will understand that intl trade is not a recent event.
	Activities: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Warm up – Ms. Smith will assign you a country as you walk in...research how this country started trading 2. Unit 1 – regional profile – class discussion – answer “Think Critically”. Cover barter and old forms of trade...how it changed over the years...what had the largest impact on intl trade? What technology has helped? Where is it going? 3. Explain year-long project – students will choose a country and a company-must be approved by Ms. Smith 4. Homework – start researching the history of your country. How and why did trade begin internationally with that country? One page paper due by Thursday.
	Materials: Hand out rubrics for “history of trade” paper
	Follow Up/HW: collage due tomorrow, one page paper about history/beginning of trade in that country due thursday
Tuesday	Objective: The learner will distinguish between domestic and international business, will discuss the reasons why international business is important and will understand that intl trade is not a recent event.
	Activities: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Technology/skills collage due today 2. Vocab 3. P.7-12 – complete “solve global business problems, think critically and make connections” on p. 13 4. P. 14-18 – research current trade barriers 5. Nafta – p. 9 and “work as a group” p.10
	Materials:
	Follow Up/HW:
Wednesday/Thursday	Objective: The learner will distinguish between domestic and international business, will discuss the reasons why international business is important and will understand that intl trade is not a recent event.
	Activities: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Warm up 2. One page paper over the history of trade in their country – due today – put a copy in folder 3. Discuss the main things that students found from their research. 4. Continue with p. 14-21 - discuss
	Materials:
	Follow Up/HW:
Friday	Objective: The learner will describe basic international business activities, explain the components of the intl business environment and name important skills for intl busn and the importance of intl busn for workers, consumers and citizens.
	Activities: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Warm up – find a current events article related to your company or country 2. Finish the end chapter 1 – p.21 – make connections with geography and your country of choice. 3. P. 25 start discussion about the yearlong project and the concept of a business plan 4. If time begin work on two page paper on the history of their country. 5. Begin
	Materials:
	Follow Up/HW:

